

Biography

Eva Grayzel is a nationally recognized Master Storyteller and expert on interactive storytelling techniques. She has recorded her stories on CD/ DVD and is the author of "You Are Not Alone: Families Touched By Cancer." Eva's dynamic keynote addresses, workshops and storytelling performances enrich the learning process and improve communication for students, educators, librarians and families. Her charisma, humor and insight inspires audiences to embrace life.

Partial Venue List

The Walt Disney Company
Council of PTA Presidents
Philadelphia Zoo
Crayola Factory
Houston Children Arts Festival
Vancouver Early Childhood Conference
Association for Theatre in Higher Education
Association for the Education of Young Children
Princeton Children's Education Committee
Allentown Symphony Orchestra
Lehigh University
Children's Museum of Manhattan
Royal Caribbean Cruises
National Parks Foundation
San Francisco Public Library System

Programs

Performance

Tales with a Twist: Values Education Through Interactive Storytelling

Audience members spontaneously role-play stories emphasizing values and life lessons.

"Eva's sensitivity and tremendous skill in reaching out to children of all levels of ability gives an experience of inclusion and success."

Barbara Firestone, Ph.D, President and CEO
The Help Group, Los Angeles CA

Teacher Workshop

Walk the Talk: Hands-On Storytelling

Master storytelling techniques that engage imaginations while teaching social skills, life values and history!

"Eva weaves sound pedagogical principles into her art and her approach is extremely engaging and compelling."

Evie Levy Rotstein Ed.D, Program Manager
Education Leadership Institute, New York NY

Parent Workshop

Putting Quality into 'Quality Time'

Empower children with your values while nourishing a foundation for building family communication.

"Eva's presentation empowered our parents with simple skills to enrich family life. Five thumbs up!!"

Anne Andrew Ph.D, Community Education Consultant
Vancouver, British Columbia

Teen Workshop

When the Going Gets Tough, Who Gets Going?

Eva's personal survival story inspires listeners to use life's challenges as a means for change.

"Teenagers are a tough audience; you knew just how to rope them in and inspire them."

Adrienne Goldstein, Educator
Friendship School, Eldersburg, MD