

Eva Grayzel is a nationally recognized Master Storyteller, specializing in Jewish Folklore, and an expert on interactive storytelling techniques with 25 years' experience. Eva was an educator in Hebrew schools for 15 years while developing her repertoire of interactive stories and pursuing an acting career. In her signature style, Eva offers creative strategies to enrich Jewish learning. Her dynamic presentations empower audiences of all ages. Eva has recorded on CD, A Story A Day, Absolute Chanukah and Proud To Be Jewish. She co-produced and wrote the video, The Secret in Bubbe's Attic. Eva is the author of Mr. C the Globetrotter and Mr. C Plays Hide & Seek.

"Eva engages listeners with compelling stories, weaving sound pedagogical principles into her art."
Evie Levy Rotstein, Ed.D., The Leadership Institute, Hebrew Union College, NY

PROGRAMS

Tales with a Twist: Interactive Story Performance Keynote - Assembly Program - Event Entertainment

Find your inner star! Eva spontaneously brings audience members on stage to role-play characters in theme-centered stories with humor and meaningful life messages.

Walk the Talk: Hands-On Storytelling Educator Workshop

Eva's interactive, innovative storytelling techniques facilitate recall, boost self-esteem and engage imaginations. Through story, teach social skills, life values and history.

When the Going Gets Rough Workshop for teens and adults

When illness alters life, what do you say; how can you help? A survivor of stage IV cancer, Eva provides Bikur Cholim tools and leadership skills for showing a sick person you care.

Rituals Rich with Reward Family Education Workshop for Parents

Do you carve out time to foster Jewish ethics at home? Build a foundation of meaningful communication and Jewish pride. Simple changes that have lasting impact!

TropAerobics Torah and Haftarah

Learn and remember the trop symbols and melody through group-inspired choreography

To Be 'Hip' from the Pulpit Story Coaching for Clergy

Need an engaging story for the holidays? Craft a meaningful story that draws in every congregant.